TOWN AND CITY CLERK
ANSONIA, CONNECTICUT

BLIGHT APPEAL HEARING
January 21, 2016
5:00 P.M.

City Officials Present
Dave Blackwell Sr.- Blight Officer
Keith Murray Esq.

Property Owners
John & Phyllis Spaulding

Call to Order:
Attorney Murray calls upon Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding property owners of 128 ½ Howard Avenue Ansonia, CT 06401.

Attorney Murray asks how long the house has been on the market. Mr. Spaulding says about 6 months and they are currently waiting on the bank of a potential buyer.

Attorney Murray asks if the shed is still there. Mr. Spaulding says no, his son removed it. Attorney Murray asks if the unregistered vehicles are still on the property. Mr. Spaulding says no they have since been removed. Attorney Murray asks if the boat is still on the property. Mr. Spaulding states the boat and trailer are on the property because he has no way of getting them out, his vehicle does not have a trailer hitch.
Mr. Blackwell states if Mr. Spaulding has the title and/or bill of sale and provides a written letter stating that permission is given for the city to remove the boat, Mr. Blackwell will then contact Public Works.

Attorney Murray says he would like to continue the hearing another 30 days.

Respectfully Submitted,
Jacquelyn Craig, Recording Clerk
