“HIGHLIGHTS”

While the Chairman and the members waited for the members to come Mrs. Janet Henry came into the Erlingheuser Room. Mrs. Henry was at the meeting on behalf of her mother Mrs. Metelski of 12 Berkshire Rd. There was a sewer back up and it backed up into Mrs. Metelskis' basement. Mrs. Henry came into the meeting and seemed angry at Chairman Madigosky whom she saw earlier in the day @ the WPCA Office. She left the office and told Howard Madigosky “I'm not going to go away” and she wanted restitution for her mothers property damage. Mrs. Henry also said to Howard Madigosky earlier in the day “I don't like you already”. There were remarks made by Mrs. Henry regarding her mother and the fact that she was 81 years old and has recently had hip surgery. She also said “she always paid her taxes on time and all she wants is her money for the damage done to her property”.

Attorney Androski did speak to Mrs. Henry on behalf of the WPCA and explained that it is her responsibility to prove that it is the city's / WPCA fault that this happened. Mrs. Henry became angry and said to Attorney Androski “you're an a-----e / expletive”. Attorney Androski didn't respond to the remark other than to tell her he recommended she get an attorney and the attorney can contact him. Mrs. Henry told Attorney Androski she already had an attorney.

Mrs. Henry abruptly got up and left the room making remarks about the Chairman and Attorney Androski on her way out.

The members and the other people present were very surprised by the actions of Mrs. Henry. The members did say that they thought Attorney Androski acted appropriately by suggesting she get an attorney and have him make contact with Attorney Androski.

At that point Chairman Madigosky indicated that he didn't think there would be a quorum. All the people present left the Erlingheuser Room.

The highlights of the evenings gathering were presented by the secretary because of the importance of the comments made by Mrs. Henry.

Respectfully submitted:
